India must improve, says coach Marijne

Indian women's hockey team chief coach Sjoerd Marijne has said his side must improve their field-goal conversion despite winning the International Hockey Federation (FIH) Nations Cup. India on Sunday defeated hosts New Zealand 2-0 with goals from Navneet Kaur and Sunelita Toppo to secure promotion back to the elite FIH Pro League. "Of course, we are delighted to win our first tournament and final together," Marijne said.

Aditi finishes tied-24th

Indian golfer Aditi Ashok finished tied-24th at the Meijer Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Classic following a final round of one-under 71 here. Ashok finished the week with an eight-under-par score of 280, logging rounds of 69, 69, 71 and 71. Miyu Yamashita, a former major winner, won the title after beating Lottie Wood in a play-off. Yamashita and Wood were locked at 17-under par after 72 holes before Yamashita birdied.

FIH Nations Cup | Savita Punia attributes the historic victory to team unity 'Title a big morale booster'

NEW DELHI

Senior Indian women's hockey team goalkeeper Savita Punia feels the International Hockey Federation (FIH) Nations Cup triumph will serve as a big morale booster for the side ahead of the upcoming World Cup and Asian Games, and attributed the success to unity and a healthy dressing-room atmosphere.

India defeated hosts New Zealand 2-0 in the final at Auckland to clinch the title and secure promotion to the elite FIH Pro League after being relegated following a last-place finish in the previous season.

"This victory is crucial because if we want to compete regularly against the best teams in the world, it is important to be in the Pro League.

With the World Cup and Asian Games also coming up this year, this win will definitely boost our confidence," Punia told PTI Bhasha from Auckland.

The FIH Hockey World

Cup, both men and women, will be hosted simultaneously by Belgium and the Netherlands from August 15 to 30, while the Asian Games are scheduled to be held in Aichi-Nagoya, Japan, from September 19 to October 4.

The veteran goalkeeper said the Indian team is capable of beating any opponent if it plays as a collective unit. "As the most senior and experienced player in the team, I always try to keep the group united, both on and off the field. I believe that if we stay together, we are second to none as a team."

Punia, who will receive the Padma Shri Award from President Droupadi Murmu on Tuesday, credited the entire squad for the title-winning campaign. "The entire team played really well. Bichu Devi and I support each other, which is important for the team environment. She is performing very well and I try to guide her as much as possible."

The 36-year-old also

Savita Punia
India goalkeeper

praised chief coach Sjoerd Marijne, who guided India to a historic fourth-place finish at the Tokyo Olympics. Marijne returned as the chief coach of the women's team earlier this year.

"Coach Sjoerd Marijne was the best for us then and he remains the best now. His trust in the players, his winning mentality and his demand for high standards make this team stronger. He treats every player equally, which is very important," Punia said.

Older Indians redefining sport and healthy ageing

Haridev Pushparaj
MUMBAI

For many Indians, sport enters public consciousness only during the Olympics, Asian Games or other major international events. Once the medals are counted, attention quickly fades.

Yet a true sporting culture is built not during a few weeks of celebration, but through everyday participation across all ages and communities.

That belief lies at the heart of initiatives encouraging older adults to embrace sport. The message is simple: sport is not reserved for the young or the elite. It is for anyone willing to participate.

Across India, more older adults are doing exactly that.

At the Tata Mumbai Marathon, runners in their sixties and seventies are no longer a rarity. They are training seriously, competing regularly and striving to improve their personal bests. What was once unusual has become increasingly common, reflecting a broader shift in attitudes towards ageing and fitness.

For generations, ageing and athletics were viewed as opposites. Older adults were expected to slow down, rest and step away from physical challenges. That perception is now changing at a crucial time. India is home to more than 150 million people above the age of 55, and the number continues to grow.

The health benefits of regular physical activity later in life are well documented. Exercise helps reduce the risk of heart disease, strengthens bones, improves memory and lowers the likelihood of depression. Yet those who take up sport later in life often speak less about medical benefits and more about confidence, friendship, routine and purpose.

Among those leading this movement is Mumbai resident Kishori K, who began running at the age of 60.

Over the past decade, she has participated in races ranging from five kilometres to 50 kilometres, completed a full marathon at the Tata Mumbai Marathon and won more than 45 awards across events in Mumbai, Pune, Ahmedabad, Goa, Surat, Ratnagiri and Satara.

"Marathon running has changed my life. I started at 60 and, at 69, I am still running strong. Physically and mentally, it has given me strength, confidence and a positive outlook. Every race reminds me that age is just a number," she said.

Another inspiring example is Kranti S, 57, who has completed 24 marathons worldwide, participated in all six Abbott World Marathon Majors, competed in the Sydney Marathon and the Hyrox Mumbai Championship, and earned three Guinness World Records.

Marathon running has changed my life. I started at 60 and, at 69, I am still running strong. Physically and mentally, it has given me strength, confidence and a positive outlook.
